

MAYNARD FERGUSON, WOW! THE FORMATIVE YEARS (U.K. RELEASE) – Living Era CD AJA 5659

This CD was released in 2005 and it includes many of Maynard's tracks from the late 1940s into the 1950s. It starts with the tracks Diz Duz Everything and Body and Soul with Jimmy Dorsey. Next is All the Things You Are with Charlie Barnet. Then the track Maynard Ferguson with Stan Kenton, followed by MF on Take the 'A' Train, Short Wave, Love Locked Out, and Band Ain't Draggin'. It switches back to MF with Kenton on The Hot Canary and What's New?, followed by MF with Ben Webster on King's Riff. Next is MF with Kay Brown on Wow!, followed by his Octet on The Way You Look Tonight, All God's Chillun Got Rhythm, Over the Rainbow, and Hymn to Her. It wraps up with the 8 tracks Wonder Why, C'Est La Blues, Miss Pitlack Regrets, Maynard the Fox, The Wailing Boat, Say it With Trumpets, Everybody Moan, and You Said It. Truly a wonderful collection. Years ago you had to buy a whole bunch of 78s, 45s, and/or LPs to get all these tracks, but here they all are in one place. It's truly a wonderful collection of early MF material!!!

COPY #1. There are a few light scratches on the disc, but it plays perfectly. NMINT-. $12.00.

MAYNARD FERGUSON, HIS ORCHESTRA AND OCTET, 1950-1954: BAND AIN'T DRAGGIN' (SPANISH RELEASE) -- Fresh Sound Records Jazz City Series FSR-2204

This great CD was released in 2005 and it includes many of Maynard's tracks from the early 1950s. It starts off with MF fronting what was essentially the Kenton Orchestra on the tracks Band Ain't Draggin', Short Wave, Love Locked Out, and Take the "A" Train (9/13/50). Next are What's New? and The Hot Canary (5/31/51), Roses all the Way, And So I Waited Around, Homing Pidgeon, and Wow! (2/25/52), then finishes off with Thou Swell, The Way You Look Tonight, All God's Chillun Got Rhythm, Willie Nillie, Hymn to Her, Lonely Town, and Over the Rainbow (2/19/54). Great, GREAT stuff!!! And a bit of trivia for you. Throughout the 8-page booklet that comes with the CD are pictures of the original 78 RPM record labels for many of these tunes, as well as an image of the 7" picture cover from the Hot Canary 45. I'm honored to say that those images are of the items in my personal collection, which I was quite happy to provide to Jordi Pujol of Fresh Sound to be included with this release. I absolutely LOVE this collection of early MF material!!!

MAYNARD FERGUSON, SAY IT WITH TRUMPETS (ITALIAN RELEASE) -- Musica Jazz MJCD 1185

In November 2006, the Italian Jazz Magazine Musica Jazz had a great article on Maynard. Shrink wrapped with the magazine was a CD which was sort of a "Maynard Ferguson's Greatest Hits of All Time" CD called Say It with Trumpets. This CD has virtually all of the GREAT, GREAT stuff MF did in his early years with Charlie Barnet, Stan Kenton, Pete Rugolo, and Maynard's own band. It includes the tracks Maynard Ferguson, The Wailing Boat, What's New, Brazil, Somebody Wants Me Down There, The Hot Canary, Great Guns, Invention for Guitar and Trumpet, An Orchestra, Blues in Burlesque, That Jones Boy, Jingle Bells Mambo, Lady Bug, Say it With Trumpets, Straight Up, and All the Things You Are. It also includes a version of the tune Maynard Ferguson by Italian trumpeter Andrea Tofanelli. Total playing time on this long and superb CD is 72:08. Rare, rare, rare!!!!!! Grab one while you can.

COPY #1. This copy is used with a few light scratches that don't affect play. NMINT-. $45.00.

COPY #2. This copy is in MINT condition. It's $55.00.

MAYNARD FERGUSON, COMPACT JAZZ (JAPANESE RELEASE) -- Mercury EJD-1016

This is one of the rarest CDs of Maynard's material every produced. I have only seen about 10 copies total in the past 30 years. Were 300 pressed? Maybe 500? I can't imagine any more than that exist. It's a long-out-of-print 1989 Japanese compilation CD of tunes from the early years, and includes Maiden Voyage, The Way You Look Tonight, All God's Chillun Got Rhythm (2/19/54), Lonely Town, Over the Rainbow (2/23/54), I Have but Two Horns, Inter-Space, 20 Rue de Madrid (4/25/55), Yeah, Egad Martha, Slow Stroll (8/26/55), C'est La Blues, Wildman (11/7/55), Dancing Nitely, Ain't Life Grand (11/10/55), and Never You Mind (5/12/56). They come with both an English and Japanese insert, and the artwork on the CD is unique to this issue. QUITE RARE, and a must for the most serious collectors. I have seen a copy sell on-line in the past for over $400.00, although they don't command that sort of price these days.

COPY #1. This one is almost like new -- NMINT+. It's $85.00.

MAYNARD FERGUSON, HOLLYWOOD PARTY (JAPANESE RELEASE) -- Universal Music UCCU-9967 383

On 2/22/54, Maynard headed a jam session in Hollywood with some of the great west coast jazz stars. That day the tracks Night Letter and Somebody Loves Me were recorded, and they eventually became the tracks on the Hollywood Party LP. Here are those same two tracks released on a high-quality Japanese CD pressing from 2013.

MAYNARD FERGUSON, JAM SESSION (JAPANESE RELEASE) -- Mercury UCCM-9120

During 2002, Mercury Japan issued this copy of the old Jam Session LP in a mini-LP style cardboard CD case. The printing must have been extremely small, because they were sold out on all the major CD sites in no time at all. It contains both the original tunes from the original 1954 LP: Air Conditioned, and Our Love is Here to Stay. These tracks were recorded in Hollywood on 2/23/54.

Here's a relatively rare 1999 various artists 2-CD set that's an important addition to any MF collection. Maynard played frequently over the years at Ronnie Scott's Jazz Club in London, and for the 40th anniversary of the club, Verve put out this compilation CD of many of the artists that played on Scott's stage over the years. VARIOUS ARTISTS, BIG BAND, MORE GREATEST HITS -- RCA Victor 09026-63343-2

This is an RCA compilation CD from 1998. It has cover art by the great caricaturist Al Hirschfeld. (He always puts his daughter Nina's name somewhere in each drawing – it looks like it's in Benny Goodman's hair on this cover.) There are 17 tracks from some of the greatest Big Bands, such as Glenn Miller (American Patrol), Duke Ellington (It Don't Mean a Thing), Artie Shaw (Begin the Beguine), etc. And of course, it wouldn't be listed here unless it contained MF -- track 13 is The Wailing Boat from his Mercury recording days. Overall, a super little CD, with some real jazz history, great cover art, and of course, great entertainment.

COPY #1. This copy is MINT, FACTORY SEALED. $10.00.

VARIOUS ARTISTS, MERCURY 40TH ANNIVERSARY V.S.O.P. ALBUM (JAPANESE RELEASE) -- Mercury 824 116-2

Most of you have seen or heard of the 4-LP boxed set with this title. But this is the 4-CD version. It's MUCH, MUCH RARER than the LP set. It comes in a quadruple CD case, with a great little 34-page booklet, written in both English and Japanese. Pressed in 1984, this set is LONG out-of-print, and very hard to find anymore.

COPY #1. This one has everything intact except for the 34-page booklet, which is missing. There is a track listing included, however. Other than the missing booklet, everything is here and is in NMINT condition. Due to the missing booklet, this one is bargain priced at just $12.00.

Several years ago, RCA put out a 5-CD boxed set with all the great jazz artists from the 1920s through the 1960s. Maynard wound up on this set with his great track The Wailing Boat, and also with Shorty Rogers on the track Chiquito Loco. These originally sold for about $75.00 and are now long out-of-print. Great, great jazz. I like to listen to these discs in the car, as everything is top notch! NO COPIES AVAILABLE AT THIS TIME.

MAYNARD FERGUSON, THE BIRDLAND DREAMBAND (AUSTRIAN PRESSING) -- RCA BMG ND86455

This is the out-of-print Maynard Ferguson CD from 1987, and it's the Austrian version. It differs significantly from the U.S. version, in that there is an extra flap on the front booklet that overlaps the cover partially with a yellow cloud-like graphic. This makes it look totally different than the U.S. version and makes it a significant variety. The graphics on the CD itself are also significantly different. Like the U.S. version, it includes 18 tracks from the Birdland Dreamband albums that were issued on the Vik label in the mid '50s. And this Austrian version is perhaps 20 times as rare as the U.S. version.

MAYNARD FERGUSON, A MESSAGE FROM NEWPORT -- Roulette RCD 59024

Back in 1985, Roulette had the Japanese firm Nippon Columbia press this CD for them. As far as I know, it only sold in the U.S. It's now long out of print, and very, very hard to come by. The CD cover has the same photo as the original 1958 LP. Tracks listed on the cover and the disc include The Fugue, Fan It Janet, The Waltz, And We Listened, Tag Team, Slide's Derangement, Humbug, Frame for the Blues, and Three Little Foxes. But there are actually only 7 tracks on the disc. The Fugue and Humbug are not on the CD, just like they were not on the original Roulette Stereo LP. Strange, but true. I almost NEVER see a copy of this CD, so if I have one available, grab it while you can.

COPY #1. Just in, this one is NMINT+, almost like new. It's yours for $20.00.

MAYNARD FERGUSON, A MESSAGE FROM NEWPORT (ITALIAN VERSION) -- Roulette CDOR 8931

Back in 1985, Roulette had the Japanese firm Nippon Columbia press this CD for them. As far as I know, it only sold in the U.S. But at the same time, they had Nippon Columbia press an Italian version of this CD, and as far as I know, it only sold in Italy. It was released by Carosello Records. This is the Italian Version. The CD cover has the same photo as the original 1958 LP. There are 7 tracks listed on the back cover Fan It Janet, The Waltz, And We Listened, Tag Team, Slide's Derangement, Frame for the Blues, and Three Little Foxes, and those 7 tracks are the only tracks on the CD. The Fugue and Humbug are not on the CD, just like they were not on the original Roulette Stereo LP. BUT ... they ARE listed on the disc itself, except that they misspelled "Fugue" as "Fudge." What a laugher. I almost NEVER see a copy of this CD, so if I have one available, grab it while you can.

MAYNARD FERGUSON, A MESSAGE FROM NEWPORT (U.K. VERSION) -- Roulette CDP 7 93272 2

Back in 1989, Roulette/EMI pressed this CD in the U.K. The CD cover has the same photo as the original 1958 LP. Tracks listed on the back cover and the disc include The Fugue, Fan It Janet, The Waltz, And We Listened, Tag Team, Slide's Derangement, Humbug, Frame for the Blues, and Three Little Foxes. But UNLIKE the U.S. and Italian versions, The Fugue and Humbug ARE on this CD. So this is the only version with all 9 tracks in STEREO (other than the Mosaic 10-CD set). I almost NEVER see a copy of this CD, so if I have one available, grab it while you can.

VARIOUS ARTISTS, ESSENTIAL JAZZ (DUTCH PRESSING) -- Disky ES 873972

This is a Dutch compilation CD from 1996, now out of print, with the tracks Soft Winds (2/25/59) and Stompin' at the Savoy (3/31/59), recorded in NYC. I very seldom see one of these anymore. They're very hard to find.

STAN KENTON, A MERRY CHRISTMAS -- Capitol Jazz 7243 5 84646 2 7

I struggled with whether to list this on the Kenton CD page or the Maynard Ferguson CD page. The first 12 tracks are the Kenton Orchestra, and this is a 2003 re-issue of an earlier CD that only had the 12 tracks, and 11 of those 12 tracks came from a 1961 LP with this same title; the 12th comes from a 1963 Capitol single. But this CD has a bonus 13th track, and that track is Maynard's recording for Roulette from the late 1950s of Christmas for Moderns. It's a medley of the tunes The First Noel, White Christmas, O Come All Ye Faithful, The Christmas Song, Silent Night, and Jingle Bells. It's interesting that they decided to tack this Maynard Ferguson Band medley on the end of a Kenton CD, but I'm glad they did. Maynard and his guys WAIL through this medley. And the 12 Kenton tracks are absolutely brilliant! They positively SWING! You won't be disappointed with this CD. It's one our family listens to over and over every holiday season. They appear to be out of print now, and are quite hard to find.

VARIOUS ARTISTS, THE SULLIVAN YEARS, BIG BAND ALL-STARS VOLUME 2 -- TVT Records 9451-2

Back in 1995, a small label called TVT Records released this disc containing various big bands performing on the Ed Sullivan Show. Recording dates are between 3/13/49 and 4/6/69. Maynard's band is represented on the track "Hey There" from 8/14/60. However, there are two other tracks with Maynard. Both were with the Stan Kenton Orchestra, and both were recorded on 12/3/50. The first is "Artistry in Rhythm." The second is Maynard's signature tune, "Maynard Ferguson." Wow!!!!!! These CDs are now long out of print, and I seldom see a copy. They're very, very hard to obtain!

This is a 2003 CD, issued as a promo release only, that has MF and Chris Connor on the track Can't Get Out of This Mood from the Two's Company LP. It's a very rare CD. CHRIS CONNOR AND MAYNARD FERGUSON, DOUBLE EXPOSURE -- Collector's Choice Music CCM-319-2

Here's 2002 release of the great Chris Connor/Maynard Ferguson recording "Double Exposure." This is one of my favorite recordings! Maynard and the band provide a fantastic backup-band for Connor, on such tunes as Summertime, I Only Have Eyes for You, etc. A must-have in every M.F. collection.

CHRIS CONNOR AND MAYNARD FERGUSON, DOUBLE EXPOSURE (JAPANESE RELEASE) -- Atlantic AMCY-1074

Here's a 1991 Japanese release of the great Chris Connor/Maynard Ferguson recording "Double Exposure." Please don't confuse this with the newer, U.S. release. This one is a Japanese audiofile CD from many years earlier. This is one of my favorite recordings! Maynard and the band provide a fantastic backup-band for Connor, on such tunes as Summertime, I Only Have Eyes for You, etc. And this is a superior pressing!!! Rare, long out-of-print, and extremely difficult to find!!!

CHRIS CONNOR SINGS THE GEORGE GERSHWIN ALMANAC OF SONG -- Atlantic Jazz 601-2

MAYNARD FERGUSON, THE COMPLETE ROULETTE RECORDINGS OF THE MAYNARD FERGUSON ORCHESTRA -- Mosaic MD10-156

Folks, if you were about to be stranded on a desert island and could only grab one set of CDs to take with you, this would be the one. This is, to my mind, the best era for Maynard and his band. This 10-CD boxed set contains all the tracks MF and the band recorded for Roulette, with the notable exception of the Chris Connor tracks, the Yesterdays/Indiscreet singles, and the rare tracks Bluebird-Land and Her Face (which only exist on the ultra-rare Roulette RJB-9 45 -- only a handful of copies known). So, except for these few tracks, you get it all -- everything recorded between 1958 and 1962 (although some of the material was released as late as 1965). All 5,000 copies of this set are now sold, and this one is officially out of print (has been for many years now), and the prices are high for used copies. Many sets have sold online for in excess of $700.00 + postage and handling, although you can occasionally find a copy for around $500.00. I would encourage you to take a deep breath and put this one in your collection. It's truly one of the most important items and simply MUST be in every serious MF collection.

This CD version was released in 1991, and was available for a few years, but is no longer in print. Very hard to come by. Be advised that this one has a cover very similar to the Color Him Wild LP -- a modern art rendition of MF. VARIOUS ARTISTS, JAZZ AND THE BIG BANDS COME TO CORNELL: 20 CLASSIC ITHACA PERFORMANCES BY THE GREAT ARTISTS OF THE 50s -- Cornell University, No Catalog Number

This CD has recordings of various bands that performed at Cornell in the 1950s. Included is MF and his band on the track This Night. Maynard and his band performed on the IPC Weekend, February 25, 1959, in Bailey Hall at Cornell. But this track is not from that night. Rather, it's the recording that would wind up later on the Color Him Wild Mainstream LP. There are other great performances by jazz artists including Ahmad Jamal, Coleman Hawkins, J.J. Johnson, Carmen McRae, Lambert Hendricks & Ross, Duke Ellington, George Shearing, Lionel Hampton, Dizzy Gillespie, Count Basie, etc. It's a veritable Who's Who of jazz musicians from the 1950s. This CD was apparently released in conjunction with the 35th reunion of the Cornell Class of 1960 in 1995. It's rare!!!

MAYNARD FERGUSON AND HIS ORCHESTRA, THE BLUES ROAR -- Mobile Fidelity Sound Lab

This is NOT the Mainstream version of this CD. Rather, it's the much rarer Mobile Fidelity Sound Lab version. It's got Maynard on the track "The Clef," which was never issued on the original Mainstream LPs. This is a VERY hard CD to find!

VARIOUS ARTISTS, JAZZ CD VOL 1 NO 2 -- Issued Free with Jazz CD Magazine

Here's a great compilation CD of various artists that I'm guessing was issued in about 1992, as it was a compilation put together by Mainstream for Jazz CD Magazine, Volume 1 Issue 2, and it seems to have a lot of the same tunes that Mainstream released in that era on discs such as A Taste of Jazz. Maynard is present on the tune Between Races. Most copies of this CD were no doubt discarded, long ago. I've only seen a very, very few of them. It came in a little paper sleeve, many of which were no doubt discarded. If you can find this disc, WITH the original paper sleeve, you've got a real rarity.

VARIOUS ARTISTS, LIVE JAZZ FROM CLUB 15 -- Request Records 3-8005

This 2006 CD features radio broadcasts of The Stan Getz Quartet, Gene Krupa's Orchestra, and Maynard Ferguson & His Orchestra recorded at Club 15 in Las Vegas. Maynard's two represented tracks, Take the 'A' Train and Got the Spirit, were performed live on 5/14/66. I don't believe this version of these two recordings exists on any other albums.

MAYNARD FERGUSON, MAYNARD FERGUSON SEXTET 1967 (CANADIAN RELEASE) -- Just a Memory JAS 9503-2

This 1995 CD was originally released by Radio Canada International as an LP entitled The Maynard Ferguson Sextet in 1967. It's a live recording of MF and his sextet at Expo '67 in May of 1967. Tracks include To and Fro, I Can't Get Started, Polecat, Who Can I Turn To, My Sister, Over the Rainbow, and Summertime 'Revisited'. Phenomenal MF playing, and a great band, too! The original LPs often sell for $50.00 plus because of their interesting cover graphics. This CD is less.

MAYNARD FERGUSON, RIDIN' HIGH -- Wounded Bird Records WOU 3101

This 2004 CD is a reissue of the circa 1968 LP. As you probably know, this was not the greatest record Maynard ever recorded, and arguably, it's the worst. But it's a funky attempt at the "rock" sound that would be perfected two years later in the M.F. Horn LP. Maynard was trying something very new with this LP, and it led to a lot of live concert work in England over the next two years, where things truly came together to produce some of the finest work Maynard ever created. You've gotta have this one, even though it's a "misfit" in the Ferguson catalog.

MAYNARD FERGUSON, TRUMPET RHAPSODY (GERMAN RELEASE) -- MPS 06025 2759209

This 2011 CD was originally released as an LP in Germany in 1968 entitled Trumpet Rhapsody, then re-released in the U.S. in 1969 entitled Maynard Ferguson, 1969. It was then re-released on LP in the U.S. again in the 1970s under the title Trumpet Rhapsody. There are various German versions with different covers, some on MPS and some on BASF. But until now, it has never been available on CD (to my knowledge). Finally, here it is. This is one of the last major MF LPs to be converted to CD, and was long-awaited. It was recorded in December 1967 at the Sudwestfunk Studios in Baden-Baden, Germany, and MF was backed by the Sudwestfunk Big Band, conducted by Rolf-Hans Muller. Tracks include Almost Like Being in Love, Knarf, Ole, Dancing Nitely, Tenderly, Whisper Not, and Got the Spirit. It's one of my absolute favorite MF recordings, and other collectors tell me they agree with that assessment. Be sure you get one of these CDs for your collection. They have become quite scarce and are fetching between $50.00 and $200.00 on internet websites. I've gone out of my way to find every available copy that was reasonably priced.

MAYNARD FERGUSON, THE LOST TAPES VOLUME 1 (U.K. RELEASE) -- Sleepy Night Records SNR001CD

This 2007 CD is a compilation of tunes that literally were stored on tape, in a trunk, in Ernie Garside's bedroom. Ernie was Maynard's friend, fellow musician, and club owner in the U.K. during Maynard's British years. Apparently, it was his dream for some time to release some of this great material. I understand these were prepared in a very limited pressing ... just enough to cover the costs so that another "Lost Tapes" CD could be forthcoming in the future, so they're going to be quite hard to find as time marches on. These are never-before-released versions, some studio, some live, of some exceptionally rare MF recordings. Tracks include El Dopa, Fox Hunt, Tenderly, Watermelon Man, Somewhere, The Italian Suite, Eleanor Rigby, The Fruit of the Loon, Don't Let the Sun Go Down on Me, and Blue Birdland. Now honestly, some of this material is second rate, mainly due to mike placement, etc. But some of it is absolutely, unquestionably FANTASTIC! I would have gladly paid for the entire CD just to get the track Italian Suite, which is a compilation of tunes originally recorded for Roulette. It's fabulous! The version of Fox Hunt, with MF playing four different horns overdubbing with himself, is likewise sensational! Although I don't like this version of El Dopa quite as well as the Columbia studio version, it's unique, really stretched out, and quite worthwhile. You'll probably enjoy everything on this disc, although, once again, some of it is less than tremendous. But you MUST have this in your collection for the four or five tracks that are amazing.

MAYNARD FERGUSON, THE LOST TAPES VOLUME 2 (U.K. RELEASE) -- Sleepy Night Records SNR002CD

This 2008 CD is a compilation of tunes that literally were being stored on tape, in a trunk, in Ernie Garside's bedroom. Ernie was Maynard's friend, fellow musician, and club owner in the U.K. during Maynard's British years, and apparently it was his dream for some time to release some of this great material. I understand these were prepared in a very limited pressing ... so they're going to be quite hard to find as time marches on. These are never-before-released versions, some studio, some live, of some exceptionally rare MF recordings. Tracks include Give it One, Blue Birdland, In the Mood, OLE, Sunny, Eli's Coming, Bridge over Troubled Water, The Meeting of Shiva Shakti, LA Expression, and La Fiesta. Now honestly, some of this material is second rate, mainly due to mike placement, etc. But some of it is absolutely, unquestionably GREAT!!!!!! You'll probably enjoy everything on this disc, although, once again, some of it is less than tremendous. But you MUST have this in your collection for the few tracks that are great.

COPY #1. This copy is MINT, FACTORY SEALED. But the front cover of the jewel case was cracked in shipping. I'll open it and put a new front cover on if you like. $22.00.

This 2016 CD is the follow-on to the prior two Lost Tapes releases from Sleepy Night Records. These are never-before-released versions, some studio, some live, of some exceptionally rare MF recordings. Tracks include Opening Cadenza, Blue Birdland, Take the "A" Train, People, Living in the Past, Got the Spirit, Geller's Cellar, Sweet Rosetta, Three More Foxes, Chameleon, Tommy, and Pagliacci. Now honestly, some of this material is second rate, mainly due to mike placement, etc. But some of it is absolutely, unquestionably GREAT!!!!!! You'll probably enjoy everything on this disc, although, once again, some of it is less than tremendous. But you MUST have this in your collection for the few tracks that are simply STUNNING!

MAYNARD FERGUSON, THE LOST TAPES BONUS (U.K. RELEASE) -- Sleepy Night Records (NO CATALOG NUMBER)

This 2019 CD is the follow-on to the prior three Lost Tapes releases from Sleepy Night Records. It comes in an LP-style cardboard cover. It sold out rapidly and is now out of print! These are never-before-released versions, some studio, some live, of some exceptionally rare MF recordings. Tracks include Memories of You (1944 -- YES, 1944, when MF was just 16 years old), What's New (1951), Hey There (1961), Sound of the Trumpet (1967), Country Road, Spinning Wheel, and Left Bank Express (all 1974), Mother Fingers (1975), Over the Rainbow, and Maria (both 1978). You'll probably enjoy everything on this disc, although some of the recordings are less than tremendous. But you MUST have this in your collection for the few tracks that are simply STUNNING! The 1944 recording, alone, is worth the price.

VARIOUS ARTISTS, ERNIE GARSIDE PRESENTS VRYHEIDS JAZZ SUITE FOR 4 TRUMPETS BY ROB PRONK (U.K. RELEASE) -- Sleepy Night Records (NO CATALOG NUMBER)

This 2019 CD is from a studio recording in March 1968 in Hilversum, Holland. It is now out of print, and comes in an LP-style cardboard cover. It includes Maynard, Milo Pavlovic, Benny Bailey, and Dusko Goykovich on trumpet fronting an outstanding big band. But let's face it, Maynard Ferguson is the star of this recording!!! This is an incredible composition by Rob Pronk and I was STUNNED to find that it even existed. Unlike a lot of the other Sleepy Night releases which have poor recordings of live sessions, this one is obviously a studio session and it is unbelievable!!!! Truly one of the best of the best things that Maynard ever recorded. He is STUNNING on this recording. If you don't have one, jump on one of these for as long as I have them available. Only 100 copies were pressed and Sleepy Night says there will be no more!

MAYNARD FERGUSON, A MAYNARD CHRISTMAS (U.K. RELEASE) -- Sleepy Night Records (NO CATALOG NUMBER)

This 2019 CD is now out of print, and comes in an LP-style gatefold cardboard cover. It includes Maynard's band from three different eras. First is his Christmas Medley recorded live at Club 43 on 12/14/68. Next are seven tracks recorded on New Years Eve 1961 at the Redhill Inn in New Jersey. Finally, there's the Christmas Medley once again from the Chameleon Band in the mid-1970s. Inside the gatefold cover is a great story about Miles Davis decking a D.J. who didn't like Maynard's Christmas music. I'm not sure how many of these were pressed, but they sold out quickly during the Christmas season in 2019. Very, very rare!!!

VARIOUS ARTISTS, POLISH ALL STARS, JAZZ JAMBORE '69 -- JVR CD 006

In 1999, Jazzi Magazine, a European jazz magazine, released this special edition CD entitled Polish All Stars, Jazz Jambore '69. Apparently, you could only get a copy if you subscribed to the magazine. The title is interesting, because on the back it says it was recorded at the International Jazz Festival in October, 1970. Who knows! I would believe the 1969 date much more easily than the 1970 date, because by then MF had his English big band together, had released MF Horn, and was touring with the big band. Regardless, the interesting thing to all of us is the fact that Maynard put together a quartet for this festival, and he's heard on this CD in a live performance of There'll Never Be Another You. To the best of my knowledge, this is the only place you can find this recording. It's an ULTRA rare recording by Maynard, and very, very difficult to come by.

MAYNARD FERGUSON, LIVE IN ITALY VOL. I (ITALIAN RELEASE) -- Jazz Up JU-308

This is an extremely rare Italian CD of MF's 1969 band. It was recorded on March 22, 1969, at the Teatro Donizetti in Bergamo, and has Martin Drover, Ernie Garside, Hank Shaw, Brian Smith, Pete Jackson, and other of MF's British band in attendance. Tracks include Theme, Take the 'A' Train, Dancing Lightly, Watermelon Man, Alfie, and Got the Spirit. This is a very poorly mastered recording, and the sound quality is marginal. I only recommend this one for MF completists.

MAYNARD FERGUSON, THE BEST OF MAYNARD FERGUSON -- Columbia CK 36361

Although the LP of this record is pretty common, the CD is quite a bit rarer, since it was a very early CD release (1980). They have brought outrageous prices on internet auctions in the past -- as much as $80.00 (November, 2001)! Those days are long gone. Over the years, the prices have continued to fall as more and more copies have been found. I've worked hard to procure several copies. A great compilation CD with the tracks Gonna Fly Now, Mac Arthur Park, Theme from Star Trek, Birdland, Give it One, Stella by Starlight, Theme from Battlestar Galactica, Pagliacci, Main Title from Star Wars, and Airegin.

VARIOUS ARTISTS, A CONCORD JAZZ CHRISTMAS 2 -- Concord Jazz CCD-4720

A few years ago, Maynard and his band pulled out their old chart from the '50s entitled "Christmas for Moderns" and re-recorded it for this Concord compilation CD as "Christmas Medley." This is the only place you can get this version of this medley. Maynard is surprisingly strong here. Of course, many would prefer the one on the Mosaic boxed set or an old Roulette 45, recorded in the late '50s, but they're out of print, and cost mega dollars. This is the next best thing!

VARIOUS ARTISTS, JAZZ MOODS: MORNING CUP OF JAZZ -- Concord CCD-5208-2

This nice little CD comes in a special custom case. It's a compilation of some of the more upbeat tunes from Concord artists. MF is included on the track Cajun Cookin' from the One More Trip to Birdland album. This is one of my favorite tracks from the Concord era.

COPY #1. This copy is MINT, FACTORY SEALED. $12.00.

VARIOUS ARTISTS, JAZZ MOODS: A GREAT DAY OF JAZZ -- Concord Jazz CCD3-5215-2

This is a Concord Jazz 3-CD set, released in 2000. It includes MF on Cajun Cookin' from the One More Trip to Birdland album. Besides Maynard, these three discs are jam-packed with great Concord artists, like Pete Escovedo, Jack McDuff, Poncho Sanchez, Frank Vignola, Mongo Santamaria, Ernestine Anderson, Gary Burton, Tania Maria, Alan Broadbent, Jimmy Cheatham, Gene Harris, Karrin Allyson, Rickey Woodard, Ali Ryerson, Kenny Barron, Scott Hamilton, Frank Capp, Ray Brown, Dave McKenna, etc. These come in a cardboard quadruple gatefold cover. COPY #1. The three discs on this copy are embossed with "FOR PROMOTIONAL USE ONLY." The cover on this one has a little rubbing in places, mostly on or near the corners. Also, it's had a short black line drawn through the barcode (a cut-out item). As a result, it's just EX and is priced at only $5.00.

VARIOUS ARTISTS, A DUKE ELLINGTON SONGBOOK -- Concord Special Products JAZ45112

In 1997 Concord Records issued this compilation CD of various artists performing Duke Ellington songs. Maynard and Big Bop Nouveau are represented on the track It Don't Mean a Thing if it Ain't Got That Swing. Other artists include Art Blakey, Frank Capp, Gene Harris, Scott Hamilton, Cal Tjader, Carmen McRae, and others.

MICHAEL FEINSTEIN WITH THE MAYNARD FERGUSON BIG BAND, BIG CITY RHYTHMS -- Concord Jazz CCD-4869-2

Here's Concord Jazz artist Michael Feinstein, backed by Maynard and the band on this 1999 CD. It'll remind you a lot of the Chris Connor sessions from the early '60s. Maynard and the band are fine, but I'm not much for Feinstein, although he grows on you as you listen a while. Maynard takes several nice solo breaks. I particularly like the arrangement on "Let Me off Uptown." Definitely a must for every serious MF collection.

DIANE SCHUUR, MAYNARD FERGUSON, SWINGIN' FOR SCHUUR -- Concord Jazz CCD-4982-2

Here's Concord Jazz artist Diane Schuur, backed by Maynard and the band on this 2001 CD. Tracks include Just One of Those Things, Besame Mucho, Deep Purple, Autumn Leaves, My Romance, Love Letters, East of the Sun and West of the Moon, Midnight Sun, I Fall In Love Too Easily, Lush Life, Just Friends, and Let's Fall in Love. The arranging is superb, and Schuur's vocal prowess has never been more evident. There's plenty of Maynard's chops coming through, as well.

DIANE SCHUUR, MAYNARD FERGUSON, SWINGIN' FOR SCHUUR (RUSSIAN PRESSING) -- Label and Catalog Number Unknown

Here's Concord Jazz artist Diane Schuur, backed by Maynard and the band on this 2001 CD. I'm sure most of you have the U.S. version, but this one comes from Russia! Although most of the printing is in English, the label and catalog number seem to be hidden in the Russian portion of the text, so I'm not sure what they are. This one was very hard to get!!!!

VARIOUS ARTISTS, JAZZ IS COOL -- Concord Records PRO-4997-2

This is a Concord Promo release that comes in a little cardboard LP-type cover. It's got 12 tracks from various Concord artists and includes MF with Diane Schuur on the track East of the Sun. Exceptionally RARE! I've only seen 2 or 3 of these. Released in 2001.

VARIOUS ARTISTS, HAROLD ARLEN CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION 100 -- Concord Jazz CCD2-2281-2

Here's a compilation 2-CD set of various Concord artists playing tunes by Harold Arlen. This one was issued in 2005, then for some strange reason, was almost instantly "deleted" by Concord. MF is represented with Diane Schuur on the tune Let's Fall in Love. Many copies were dumped on the market by Concord with large hole punches through the barcode in the backing paper. (Otherwise, they are generally in MINT condition.) Most copies will be like this unless I specifically state that they do NOT have a hole punch in the barcode. Now, here's the great thing. This is an absolutely FABULOUS compilation CD. My wife and I have listened to the entire 2-CD set many times, and the more we listen, the more we like this CD. The music is phenomenal. Don't miss out on this great CD set!
COPY #1. This copy is almost like new except that it does have the typical core hold in the back paper insert – NMINT-. $12.00.

MAYNARD FERGUSON, ON A HIGH NOTE (THE BEST OF THE CONCORD JAZZ RECORDINGS) -- Concord Jazz CCD-30214-2

Here's a 2007 compilation CD of what is essentially "The Best of Maynard on Concord." I think they hit this one pretty-much square on the head. Every track is great. Tracks include You Got It, Caravan, Just Friends, Manteca, Sugar, I Love You, Knee Deep in Rio, Close Your Eyes, Let's Fall in Love, and Birdland. This one was issued shortly after Maynard passed away. Quite a great tribute to his years at Concord Records.

MAYNARD FERGUSON, MF HORN VI, LIVE AT RONNIE'S -- Maynard Ferguson Music (no catalog number)

Here's the 2006 live CD recorded at Ronnie Scott's Jazz Club in London, August 4-7, 2005. One of Maynard's last recordings, it's quite good, although a bit flawed in places (if you're a purist and/or don't "get" the fact that Maynard was in poor health and nearing the end of his life). It includes tracks such as Blue Birdland, The Girl from Ipanema, Frame for the Blues, and even an MF Hit Medley. It has that feeling of being at a live MF concert, with Maynard speaking in several places, etc. (Introducing the tune Frame for the Blues, he says, "so here's something I recorded in 1902." Laughter!) A must have, in my opinion! Be aware that these were pressed in small quantities and many collectors failed to get them when new. They're now quite hard to find.

MAYNARD FERGUSON, THE ONE AND ONLY MAYNARD FERGUSON -- Maynard Ferguson Trust (no catalog number)

Here's the 2007 CD -- Maynard's last album -- recorded at Bennett Studios, Englewood, New Jersey, July 25-30, 2006. Recall that Maynard passed away on August 23, 2006, so this effort was truly his last. He put together a great band for this session, including Wayne Bergeron, Patrick Hession, Serafin Aguilar, Mike Dubaniewicz, Chip McNeill, Denis DiBlasio, Jeff Lashway, Stockton Helbing, and Christian Jacob, among others. Tracks include Without a Song, Besame Mucho, Ain't No Sunshine When She's Gone, Vita Bella, Dr. Fox Ph.D., Lost Horizons, Surviving Soho, The Days of Wine and Roses, and Darn that Dream (which he had recorded with Dinah Washington more than half a century before). A must have, in my opinion! Even though it was only issued in 2007, it's out of print and already very hard to find, perhaps because it was privately issued by the Ferguson family. NO COPIES AVAILABLE AT THIS TIME.
