

Kay Brown CDs with Maynard Ferguson

Various Artists, I Hate Cherries Vol. 2: Serious 50's Female Jivers (Spanish Release), Sleazy Records, SRCD-20.

This is a various artists CD. Many of you know that MF recorded the track Oop-Shoop with his first wife, Kay Brown, and the Van Alexander Orchestra. It was originally released on a Crown 45 and 78. Those are very difficult to find and generally quite expensive. But here is Oop-Shoop on CD in digital format.

Kay Brown 45s with Maynard Ferguson

KAY BROWN WITH VAN ALEXANDER AND HIS ORCHESTRA, OOP-SHOOP/LOVE ME – Crown Records 45x127

Here's Maynard with his wife (at the time) Kay Brown and the Van Alexander Orchestra on two bubble gum pop tunes Oop-Shoop and Love Me. Maynard can be heard distinctly playing and soloing on this 45. It's a rare disc. I seldom see one. But, of course, this is an important recording for every MF fan! BONUS: IF YOU REQUEST IT, INCLUDED WITH THIS 45 IS A CDR COPY OF BOTH TUNES SO THERE'S NO NEED TO ACTUALLY PLAY THE 45.

COPY #1. The labels are clean and nice on this copy with no damage of any kind. The disc itself is in the VG to VG+ range with quite a few light surface scratches that can be heard on playback. Due to its relative rarity, it's $25.00.
