

Fania All-Stars CDs with Maynard Ferguson

FANIA ALL-STARS, SPANISH FEVER -- Fania (Sonido) FA 35

Here's the CD version of the Spanish All-Stars Spanish Fever CD that features MF on some brilliant solo work. The LPs are somewhat hard to find. These CDs are near-impossible to find!!! I'm not precisely sure where they were pressed. Some folks think Spain; some think Puerto Rico. (If anyone knows for certain, please let me know.) Anyway, they're an import, and are near-impossible to find here in the U.S.

Fania All-Stars LPs with Maynard Ferguson

FANIA ALL-STARS, SPANISH FEVER -- Columbia JC 35336

Did you know that Maynard recorded with a group called the Fania All-Stars in 1978? Si! Maynard was guest soloist on the track "Spanish Fever." Great, great Latin jazz! Maynard really blows on this track. Every MF collector needs a copy of this one. If you need one, and I have one in stock, GRAB IT. These are very popular, and very hard to find.

COPY #1. The cover on this one has a paper DJ timing strip at bottom center. There's also a light abrasion at upper right from the removal of a price sticker, and a little overall ring and surface wear. I'd rate this cover as EX-. The vinyl, which has a white promo label, is an ultra-clean and nice NMINT+. Overall, this copy is EX+ to NMINT-. $10.00.

COPY #2. The cover on this one has some record ring wear and some definite edge wear. It's EX- to EX. The vinyl, however, is much nicer. It's NMINT! Overall, this copy is in the EX+ range. $9.00.

COPY #3. The cover on this one has some definite surface wear visible, front and back. Someone also wrote "01-155" in small blue ink on the back. I'd give this cover an EX- to EX. The vinyl is EX+. Overall, this one is EX. $7.00.

COPY #4. The cover on this one has a paper DJ timing strip at bottom center. There's also a little overall ring and surface wear. I'd rate this cover as EX. The vinyl, which has a white promo label, is a clean and nice NMINT. Overall, this copy is EX+ to NMINT-. $10.00.
